INDEX TO VOLUME XII

PAGE

Acidosis, the nature of, clinical studies on acid base equilibrium and; W. W. Palmer and L. J. Henderson 153
Acromegaly and polyglandular syndrome, case of, with special reference to the pineal gland; Frank K. Bartlett 201
Agnew, J. H.: Nitroglycerin, effect of, on pulse flow in the brachial artery .. 7
Air, expired, on the reinspiration of; Thomas R. Crowder 420
Allen, Frederick M.: Book Review.—Studies concerning glycosuria and diabetes 799
Anemia, pernicious, blood transfusion and regeneration in; Karl M. Vogel and U. F. McCurdy 707
Antigens, syphilis, practical studies on the so-called, with special reference to cholesterinized extracts; J. A. Kolmer, E. E. Laubaugh, A. J. Casselman and W. W. Williams 660
Antithrombin and prothrombin factors in hemorrhagic disease; G. H. Whipple 637
Aortic insufficiency; A. W. Hewlett and J. G. Van Zwaluwenburg 1
Aschoff, Ludwig: Pathogenesis of contracted kidney 723
Aschoff, Ludwig: Thrombosis 503
Atophan, studies on uric acid of blood and urine, with special reference to the influence of; James S. McLester 739
"Auricular flutter," with report of two cases; Frank Taylor Fulton 475

Bailey, Harold C.: Further observations on the protein metabolism of normal pregnancy 288
Barach, Joseph H.: Morphology of blood in epidemic parotitis 751
Bartlett, Frank K.: A case of acromegaly and polyglandular syndrome with special reference to the pineal gland 201
Bayne-Jones, Stanhope: Simplified methods for quantitative estimation of chlorids in the urine 90
Blood and urine, uric acid of, studies on, with special reference to the influence of atophan; James S. McLester 739
Blood-flow, average; relation to the pulse flow in the brachial artery. Effect of nitroglycerin; A. W. Hewlett and J. G. Van Zwaluwenburg 1
Blood-flow in the hands (and feet) in cases in which obvious anatomical differences exist. Studies on the circulation in man. IX; G. N. Stewart ... 678
Blood, morphology of, in epidemic parotitis; Joseph H. Barach 751
Blood-pressure, studies of, in states of excitement and depression; M. C. Hawley 526
Blood-pressure studies in tuberculosis at a high altitude. Report of six hundred cases; LeRoy S. Peters and E. S. Bullock 456
Blood transfusion and regeneration in pernicious anemia; Karl M. Vogel and U. F. McCurdy 707
Bluemel, C. S.: Book review.—Stammering and cognate defects of speech ... 799
Book Reviews:
Digestion and metabolism; by A. E. Taylor 243
Irritability; Max Verworn 801
Stammering and cognate defects of speech; C. S. Bluemel 799
Studies concerning glycosuria and diabetes; Frederick M. Allen 799
Tuberculin in diagnosis and treatment; L. Hamman and S. Wolman .. 356

Brown, P. K.: A typical typhoid infection 357
Brown, Wade H.: Renal complications of hematin intoxication and their relation to malaria 315
Bullock, E. S.: Blood-pressure studies in tuberculosis at a high altitude. Report of six hundred cases 456
Bunting, C. H.: Culture results in Hodgkin's disease 236

Cancer of the stomach, value of edestin and peptone in the diagnosis of; Joseph C. Friedman and Walter W. Hamburger 346
Carcinoma, age incidence in; Carl Vernon Weller 539
Carcinoma, heredity with reference to; Aldred Scott Warthin 546
Carcinoma, reaction of Salomon and Saxl as a diagnostic test for; Isidor Greenwald 283
Cardiovascular disease, hypertensive, clinical study of; Theodore C. Janeway. 7
Casselman, A. J.: Practical studies on so-called syphilis antigens, with special reference to cholesterinized extracts 660
Chace, A. F.: A contribution to the bacteriology of the duodenum 178
Chace, Arthur F.: Examination for diagnostic purposes of the enzyme activity of duodenal contents 628
Chlorids in the urine, simplified methods for quantitative estimation of; Stanhope Bayne-Jones 90
Cholesterinized extracts, practical studies on the so-called syphilis "antigens" with special reference to; J. A. Kolmer, E. E. Laubaugh, A. J. Casselman and W. W. Williams 660
Cholesterol and cholesterol-ester content of the blood in xanthoma tuberosum; Jacob Rosenbloom 395
Chondrodystrophia foetalis, observations on the pathological changes in the thyroid gland in a cretinistic variety of; Douglas Symmers and G. H. Wallace 37
Circulation in man, studies on the. IX. Blood-flow in the hands (and feet) in cases in which obvious anatomical differences exist; G. N. Stewart ... 678
Claypole, Edith J.: Agglutinability of blood and agar strains of the typhoid bacillus. Studies in typhoid immunization. II 621
Claypole, Edith J.: Typhoid-carrier state in rabbits as a method of determining the comparative immunizing value of preparations of the typhoid bacillus. Studies in typhoid immunization. I 613
Collins, R. F.: Hexamethylenamin: The liberation of formaldehyd and the antiseptic efficiency under different chemical and biological conditions ... 578
Cummins, W. T.: Atypical typhoid infection 357

Dawson, R. P.: Study XX: Effect of diuretic drugs on the life of animals with severe acute nephritis 171
Dementia praecox patients, some forms of urinary nitrogen affected by the administration of desiccated thyroid to; Ellison L. Ross 746
Dementia praecox patients, two, source of urinary indol-acetic acid in; Ellison L. Ross 231
Denis, W.: Relation between non-protein nitrogen retention and the phenol-sulphonephthalein excretion in experimental uranium nephritis 245
Diaphragm, functions of the, and their diagnostic significance; C. F. Hoover .. 214
Diuretic drugs, effect of, on the life of animals with severe acute nephritis: Study XX; Chandler Walker and R. P. Dawson 171
Dodd, Walter J.: Sources of error in the use of the stomach-tube for diagnosis. Preliminary report 488
Duodenal contents, enzyme activity of, examination for diagnostic purposes of the; Arthur F. Chace and Victor C. Myers 628
Duodenum, a contribution to the bacteriology of the; Ward J. MacNeal and A. F. Chace 178

Edestin and peptone, value of, in the diagnosis of cancer of the stomach; Joseph C. Friedman and Walter W. Hamburger 346
Ellis, Arthur W. M.: Treatment of syphilitic affections of the central nervous system with special reference to the use of intraspinous injections 331
Endocarditis, vegetative, case of, caused by a hitherto undescribed spirillum (spirillum surati, N. S.); Albert R. Lamb and F. Wade Paton 259
Enzyme activity of duodenal contents, examination for diagnostic purposes of the; Arthur F. Chace and Victor C. Myers 628
Erythrocytes, reticulated, resistance of; O. H. Perry Pepper and Max M. Peet 81

Fatigue, relation of, to paralysis localization in plumbism; Ralph R. Mellon.. 399
Fitz, R.: Effect of temporary occlusion of renal circulation on renal function. 24
Fitz, R.: Relation between non-protein nitrogen retention and the phenolsulphonephthalein excretion in experimental uranium nephritis 245
Folin, Otto: Relation between non-protein nitrogen retention and the phenolsulphonephthalein excretion in experimental uranium nephritis 245
Formaldehyd, the liberation of, from hexamethylenamin, and the antiseptic efficiency under different chemical and biological conditions; Paul J. Hanzlik and R. J. Collins 578
Foster, Nellis B.: Functional tests of the kidney in uremia 452
Friedman, Joseph C.: Value of edestin and peptone in the diagnosis of cancer of the stomach 346
Frothingham, Jr., C.: Relation between non-protein nitrogen retention and the phenolsulphonephathalein excretion in experimental uranium nephritis 245
Fulton, Frank Taylor: Auricular flutter, with report of two cases 475
